Have your say on the design of new open space coming to Bella Vista

Landcom and Sydney Metro are working together to develop the land around the Bella Vista Metro Station. This project is part of the broader Sydney Metro North West Places (SMNWP) Program that will create new neighbourhoods along the Metro Northwest rail line.

A concept masterplan has been approved for Bella Vista, including the location and preliminary designs for new open spaces.

The approved concept includes around 56,000sqm of open space with two neighbourhood parks in addition to large open space that will run alongside Elizabeth Macarthur Creek, providing opportunities for both rest and exercise.

Now is your chance to help shape plans for new parks, playgrounds and green spaces.

Have your say on the design of new open space coming to Kellyville

Landcom and Sydney Metro are working together to develop the land around the Kellyville Metro Station. This project is part of the broader Sydney Metro North West Places (SMNWP) Program that will create new communities along the Metro Northwest rail line.

A concept masterplan has been approved for Kellyville, including the location and preliminary designs for new open spaces.

The approved concept provides for approximately 29,500sqm of public open space, including new parks, plazas, and pedestrian and cycling connections. Thank you to everyone who has contributed feedback and ideas to date.

Great places are made with community input and your ongoing involvement is crucial in the development of the open spaces.
